Description

An exceptional opportunity to lease a commercial unit extending to approx. 159sqm (1,711sqft) within Devere Hall Student Centre at University College Cork (UCC). Formerly occupied by Bank of Ireland, the unit occupies a prominent ground floor position within the Student Centre, immediately adjacent to an established café and hair and beauty salon. Its position within this vibrant hub provides excellent visibility and places the property at the centre of a diverse range of complementary student-focused amenities.

Devere Hall Student Centre provides a comprehensive mix of facilities, including a convenience store incorporating academic book sales and stationery, a merchandising store, two cafés, a bar/restaurant and conference facilities. This established mix of uses creates a dynamic environment and provides occupiers with access to a strong and consistent customer base. The unit presents a rare opportunity for an occupier to establish a commercial presence within the heart of the UCC campus, with the potential to accommodate a range of complementary retail, service or commercial uses.

Location

University College Cork is one of Ireland’s leading third-level institutions, with a university population understood to exceed 26,000 students and 3,500 staff. The campus represents a substantial and diverse catchment, with Devere Hall Student Centre serving as a key focal point for day-to-day campus activity.

The Student Centre operates six days per week during the academic year and five days per week during the summer months, generating regular footfall throughout the year and providing occupiers with the potential for year-round trading. The availability of this unit represents a unique letting opportunity within one of Ireland’s most prominent third-level institutions, offering an attractive combination of location, visibility and established footfall, together with access to a large and diverse customer base.
