Property Description

This property is a highly visible corner unit within a newly developed scheme, strategically positioned directly across from the Cookstown Luas Stop. The location is anchored by a 496 sqm (5,338 sq ft) Tesco Express, a major retailer in Ireland with 183 stores and a reported €3.45 billion in Irish sales. The presence of such a strong anchor tenant ensuring a high volume of foot traffic and strong commercial appeal.

This property is part of a newly built scheme that includes 204 modern apartments. This diverse residential community—with a mix of studio, one-bedroom, and two-bedroom units—ensures a built-in customer base and strong local demand, making this a great commercial opportunity. A further 80 apartments are currently under construction next door.
