Hazelwood House

Twelve contemporary 2-bed apartments in the heart of Bantry Bay, West Cork.

Welcome To Hazelwood House

Hazelwood House is a private collection of twelve beautifully finished apartments set across three floors with a modern lift to every level. Each home offers a bright, open-plan kitchen/dining/living space, two bedrooms and two shower rooms, with ground-floor units designed for full wheelchair access. Finished to a high standard and tucked just off the N71, Hazelwood House blends everyday convenience with the calm of coastal West Cork living.

About The Area

At the heart of Bantry Bay

Ballylickey sits midway between Bantry Town and Glengarriff on the scenic N71, right at the heart of magnificent Bantry Bay. West Cork is celebrated for its unspoilt landscapes and warm welcome, and Hazelwood House places you close to it all—adjacent to the Sea View Hotel, Mannings and the Ouvane Falls Inn, with Bantry Town Centre a short drive and Cronin's Supermarket within easy walking distance.

About The Area

Outdoors on your doorstep

Whether you're into gentle strolls or big-day hikes, this is prime walking country. Amble quiet lanes or tackle the rugged Caha and Sheehy ranges; explore the well-planned Sheep's Head Way, the Beara Peninsula and the serene trails of Gougane Barra. Angling and watersports abound across the bay, while golfers are spoilt for choice with scenic Glengarriff (9-hole, hilly) and Bantry Bay Golf Club (18-hole parkland) nearby—plus an excellent Pitch & Putt course just a mile away.
