KILCOCK - A TRANQUIL TOWN

Experience contemporary living within this wonderful new neighbourhood. The Bawnogues is a new development being brought to life by Rycroft Homes. Bawnogue is an old Irish word referencing a patch of level grass often used for dancing, and there is more than enough space for just that in your new home.

With plenty of green spaces to enjoy in the development alongside lush green countryside for miles around the locality, there are some stunning natural resources to explore and enjoy here. Sitting on the Kildare, Meath border, the River Rye, and the Royal Canal flow through Kilcock. If you take a stroll around the area you'll find them, and on your travels you'll also pass the fabulous St. Coca's Church and much more. This lovely town is filled with history, charm, and a real sense of welcome.

LOCAL FEATURES

The Bawnogues is within walking distance of a host of amenities. Kilcock has everything you need within minutes of leaving home. There are several grocery stores and supermarkets to choose from whether you want a loaf of bread or a trolley full of food for the family. There is also a state of the art Primary Care centre, hair and beauty providers, coffee shops, pubs, and restaurants etc. If you need a gift for that special occasion you could pop into Books & Gifts Florists and have a browse through their selection of flowers, bric-a-brac and gifts. Or if you fancy some baked goods, you're in luck too. This wonderful town is full of treats. Your family's educational needs will also be well catered for living here. There are three primary schools and a post primary school in the town. The university town of Maynooth is a short drive and has several other primary and post primary schools too.

When it comes to dining out in Kilcock there are plenty of places to go for a coffee, a spot of lunch, or an evening meal. Bujolle Bistro is a superb restaurant that keeps the customers returning and offers a great selection for lunch and dinner. If you like some pub grub then Thomas O'Keeffe's might be worth a try or if you just want a coffee then there are numerous options for a coffee and a sandwich. The Black Forest Café is a real gem and very popular with locals. Just have a stroll through the village and see for yourself how spoilt for choice you will be. You will be well looked after living in this warm and friendly place.

LOCATION

TRAVEL OPTIONS

Kilcock has great transport links with frequent Bus Eireann bus routes direct to Dublin City Centre throughout the day. Kilcock train station is in the town centre where you can travel direct to Dublin's Connolly Station, via Maynooth and Castleknock on the Dublin to Sligo trainline. The service is excellent and will have you on your way in no time.

The M4 is accessed from Kilcock and offers direct travel by car to Dublin City Centre, the M50 motorway and beyond. Travel to the M50 only takes twenty minutes, Dublin City Centre takes thirty minutes, and Dublin Airport takes only thirty-five minutes. You are very well connected when you live in The Bawnogues.

Things to do at the Weekend

If sport is your thing there are a host of choices. There are soccer, Gaelic football, and rugby clubs, including North Kildare Sports Club, in the locality. The very active St. Cocas Athletic Club is also just a few strides away from home. One of the advantages of the canal is the chance to use it as a recreational facility and Kilcock Canoe Club is a thriving club in the area. There are a number of golf courses close by if golf is your bag and obviously being in the home of the horse brings multiple opportunities for all things equestrian.

If you prefer to be surrounded by nature then you are in luck. The Royal Canal Greenway is a beautiful walking and cycling route which can bring you back towards Maynooth, or if you prefer more of a challenge then the greenway goes all the way to lovely Longford. You may have to pack a lunch. If you don't want to travel quite so far but still want to be steeped in countryside then the stunning Donadea Forest Park is only a few minutes' drive from home. This National Heritage Park is full of trails to be explored and enjoyed and has a lovely coffee shop. It will definitely become a favourite if you have a four-legged friend in the family.

There is something for everyone in Kilcock. People of all ages whether you like action or reflection, bustling town or quiet countryside. At the end of the day you get to come home and relax in the beauty of your own surroundings in The Bawnogues.

DESIGN

These A-rated homes are designed and planned with utmost attention to detail.
