Landmark buildings in a highly strategic city centre location.

Opportunity to acquire and enhance a prominent city centre block.

The properties benefit from prominent dual frontage to pedestrianised Cook Street and Oliver Plunkett Street, complemented by valuable rear access via Elbow Lane.

Zoned ZO 5 - City Centre under the Cork City Development Plan 2022 - 2028.

Established Ground Floor Retail use with possibility for residential or commercial redevelopment/refurbishment overhead.

Located in the heart of the retail district of Cork city centre adjacent to Penneys with other nearby occupiers including Easons, Pandora, Keanes, Saville Menswear, Brown Thomas and Dunnes Stores.

Location

Cork is Ireland's second largest city and is home to many national and international retailers and brands. Patrick Street has seen a significant resurgence in recent years with a number of new entrants coming to Cork to include Urban Outfitters, Mango, Austen and Blake and Sea Salt. Other redevelopment projects in the area have cemented Patrick Street as a superb location for entrants into Ireland's second largest city.

The properties are ideally situated in an excellent location in the heart of Cork city centre. Cook Street and Oliver Plunkett Street are both pedestrianised streets which connect to Patrick Street, Cork's premier retail thoroughfare. All properties have the benefit of prime frontage with neighbouring occupiers including Penneys who have a planning permission to extend their existing store and plan to carry out a full refurbishment. Others include Dunnes Stores, Brown Thomas, Easons, Urban Outfitters and Opera Lane which hosts Next, H&M, Victorias Secret, Tommy Hilfiger amongst others.

Zoning

The properties are zoned “ZO 5 City Centre under the Cork City Development Plan 2022 – 2028.

The objective of this zoning are as follows:

“To consolidate and facilitate the development of the central area and to promote its role as a dynamic mixed use centre for community, economic, civic, cultural and residential growth and to create a thriving urban community”.

Permitted Uses: Primary uses in this zone include but are not limited to retail, residential uses, community uses, offices, hotels, cultural and leisure facilities, education and healthcare institutions and facilities and uses that contribute to the vibrancy and diversity of the City Centre.

The properties are located in Architectural Conservation Areas (ACAs) which exist to protect the character, history and appearance of specific parts of the city.

It should be noted that No. 4 Cook Street is a protected structure whilst the remainder of the properties are recorded on the National Inventory of Architectural Heritage (Buildings of Ireland Register).

Planning History & Development Grants

PLANNING HISTORY

The subject properties formed part of a larger block of properties for which planning was granted for the redevelopment and extension of the Penneys store on Patrick Street. Conditional planning was granted in November 2023 under reference 2140435.

AVAILABLE GRANTS/SCHEMES

The property benefits from potential access to highly attractive government-backed incentives supporting city-centre residential redevelopment.

Croí Cónaithe (Vacant Property Refurbishment Grant) is a government-backed incentive aimed at supporting the redevelopment of vacant and underutilised buildings in urban locations. The scheme provides meaningful capital contributions towards refurbishment and conversion works, including the transformation of former commercial premises into residential units. The level of the grant varies and dependant on each individual; project.

Potential grant funding includes:

- Standard vacant building - potential grant of €50k per building.
- Complex multi unit conversions - potential grant of up to €110k per unit.
- More info available here.

*Please Note: While these grant levels are indicative, any funding is subject to a formal application process and approval by the relevant authority. Grants are awarded on a case-by-case basis and are not guaranteed. Applicants must satisfy all eligibility criteria, and funding is typically confirmed only following detailed assessment of the proposed scheme.
